

Celebrate Heart Month at UHS

Emergency & Trauma Services

12-Lead ECG Grand Rounds

featuring:
Tim Phalen, BS, NREMT-P

Tim Phalen is a nationally acclaimed cardiology educator, author and paramedic who has trained well over 60,000 nurses, physicians, paramedics and allied health professionals in 12-Lead ECG interpretation skills. Tim is a regular presenter at EMS Today and medical conferences nationwide.

Friday, February 15, 2019

9:00am-5:00pm

Lewis Road Auditorium - 2nd Floor

Airport Corporate Park; 33 Lewis Road, Binghamton, NY 13905

Register early. Seating is limited!

Co-sponsored by The Susquehanna Regional EMS Council, Inc. and Broome County Office of Emergency Medical Services.
UHS Wilson Medical Center is a NYS-DOH Designated Stroke Center and Trauma Center

Intended Audience

Our program faculty will address the educational needs of those providing emergency medical care, including: Registered Nurses, Advanced EMTs and Paramedics, Advanced EMT/Paramedic students, Nursing students, Physicians, Interns, Residents/Fellows, Medical students, EMS Agency Chiefs, Captains and Supervisors, Nurse Practitioners, Physician Assistants, Pharmacists, Allied Health Professionals, and CRNAs.

Cost

$25.00 includes textbook.

Topics Include:

Advancing STEMI Systems of Care - 2019

- 12-Lead ECG Acquisition Skills
- STEMI vs Non-STEMI and other Acute Coronary Syndromes
- Suspecting STEMI - Recognizing STEMI
- 5 Important ECG Changes
- How to eliminate the top 5 STEMI impostors (on ECG)
- 12-Lead layout
- Waveform identification
- Recognition of J point elevation
- Lead "views"

- Reciprocal changes
- Evolutions of STEMI
- Ventricular rhythms (paced and spontaneous)
- Early repolarization
- Pericarditis
- Systematic approach

Advances in Cardiac Arrest Management

- The Resuscitation Team
- Pre and Post Cardiac Arrest Arrhythmias
- Outcome focus

- Register at www.UHSEMS.org/Register

For other registration options contact Lorin at (607) 763-6311 or lorin_missavage@uhs.org

Registration fee; make payable to "UHS Emergency Medicine Revenue Account" can be mailed to:

Lorin Missavage, Wilson Medical Center - EMS Office, 33-57 Harrison Street, Johnson City, NY 13790

SPONSORED BY:

BROOME COUNTY OFFICE OF EMERGENCY SERVICES